CSI INTERFUSION INC.

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR & CONSULTING AGREEMENT

This Independent Contractor & Consulting Agreement (this "Agreement"), dated as of July 21st, 2025, is entered into by and between CSI Interfusion Inc., a Bellevue corporation ("Company"), and Ryan Walter, a Consultant. Company and Consultant agree as follows:

1. Services. Consultant will perform for Company the services described in Exhibit A attached hereto together with such other services as the parties may hereafter agree upon in writing (collectively, the "Services") in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Company may change any Services to be performed (including without limitation addition or deletion of Services, suspension of performance, and changes in schedules and locations for performance) by giving written notice of the change.

2. Performance. Consultant will expeditiously perform the Services in a professional and workmanlike manner and in accordance with such schedules as may be agreed upon by the parties. In the event a schedule is not agreed upon, Consultant will commence performance upon notice to proceed from Company and will thereafter diligently prosecute the Services to completion. Unless otherwise agreed by Company in writing, Consultant will (a) provide all equipment and supplies necessary or appropriate to perform the Services and (b) not subcontract any Services. Consultant will prepare and furnish to Company, upon request, reports on the actual progress of the Services in form and content acceptable to Company. As used in this Agreement, the term "Consultant" shall include Consultant's employees, agents and subcontractors (if any), and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will apply to and be binding upon such employees, agents and subcontractors of Consultant.

3. Compensation. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Company will compensate Consultant for the Services in the amounts and at the times specified in the attached Exhibit A. Consultant will submit to Company an invoice for any cash amounts payable hereunder for Services rendered during any applicable payment period as may be provided in the attached Exhibit A. The invoice will be in form and content acceptable to, and as may be reasonably specified by, Company and will include a detailed description of the Services performed, the time spent by Consultant in the performance of the Services, an itemization of any reimbursable expenses for such payment period, and such other information as Company may request. Consultant will also furnish such receipts, documents and information as Company may request to verify any invoice submitted by Consultant. Company will pay Consultant the amounts properly payable thereunder within the time periods set forth on Exhibit A.

4. Term and Termination. The term of this Agreement ("Term") will commence on the date hereof and, unless earlier terminated as provided below, will end upon completion of the Services (as determined by Company in its sole discretion). Consultant may terminate this Agreement upon giving Company 30 days' prior written notice of termination. Company may terminate this Agreement 30 days' prior upon delivery of written notice to Consultant. Sections 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 and (together with all other provisions of this Agreement that may reasonably be interpreted or construed as surviving termination of this Agreement) will survive any termination of this Agreement.

5. Independent Contractor Relationship. Consultant will at all times be an independent contractor, and not an employee or agent, of Company in connection with the performance of the Services and otherwise. Consultant (a) will not have authority to enter into any contract, agreement or other commitment, or incur any obligation or liability, in the name or otherwise on behalf of Company, (b) will not be entitled to any workers' compensation, pension, retirement, insurance or other benefits afforded to employees of Company, and (c) will retain full control over the manner in which it performs the Services. This Agreement will not be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or employment relationship between Consultant and Company.

6. Compliance with Laws. Consultant will (a) provide for all local, state and federal income tax and other withholding relating to Consultant's compensation, (b) pay all social security, unemployment, disability and other taxes as required under local, state and federal laws, (c) provide all worker's compensation and other insurance relating to Consultant's employment and (d) comply with all local, state and federal laws, ordinances, regulations and orders with respect to its performance of the Services. Consultant will provide Company with such documents and other support materials as Company may reasonably request to evidence Consultant's continuing compliance with the provisions in this Section 6.

7. Insurance; Risk of Loss. Consultant will maintain such insurance policies (including, without limitation, automobile insurance, commercial liability insurance and statutory workers' compensation insurance) as may be sufficient to protect Consultant against all applicable risks. Consultant will provide Company with certificates of insurance and other supporting materials as Company may reasonably request to verify Consultant's continuing compliance with the preceding sentence. Consultant will be liable for all loss or damage, other than ordinary wear and tear, to Company's property in Consultant's possession or control. In the event of any such loss or damage, Consultant will pay Company the full current replacement cost of such equipment or property within thirty (30) days after its loss or damage.

8. Non-disclosure; Invention Assignment.

(a) Consultant acknowledges that during the course of Consultant's relationship with the Company, Consultant will be exposed to and have access to Confidential Information (as defined below). During the term of this Agreement and after its termination, Consultant will keep in confidence and trust all Confidential Information, and will not use or disclose to any third party, other than in connection with performing the Services under this Agreement, any Confidential Information or anything related thereto without the prior written consent of the Company.

(b) Consultant hereby irrevocably assigns and transfers to the Company all right, title and interest that Consultant may now or hereafter have in any Confidential Information and in any Inventions and Works, Materials and Proprietary Rights (all as defined below). This assignment and transfer is independent of any obligation or commitment made to Consultant by the Company. Consultant hereby waives any moral rights that Consultant may have in or to any Confidential Information, Inventions and Works, Materials and Proprietary Rights. Consultant acknowledges that all Confidential Information, Inventions and Works, Materials and Proprietary Rights are the exclusive property of the Company. As between the Company and Consultant, the Company is and will be the sole owner of all Confidential Information, Inventions and Works, Materials and Proprietary Rights. To the extent eligible for such treatment, all Confidential Information, Inventions and Works, Materials and Proprietary Rights will constitute "works made for hire" under applicable copyright laws. Upon the termination of this Agreement, or upon the Company's earlier request, Consultant will deliver to the Company all of the Company's property or Confidential Information, Inventions and Works, Materials and Proprietary Rights that Consultant may have in Consultant's possession or control.

(c) Consultant agrees that Consultant will not, during the term of this Agreement, improperly use or disclose any proprietary information or trade secrets of any former or current employer or other person or entity with which Consultant has an agreement or duty to keep in confidence information acquired by Consultant, if any, and that Consultant will not bring onto the premises of the Company, or the premises of any customer of the Company for which Consultant is performing services under this Agreement, any unpublished document or proprietary information belonging to such employer, person or entity unless consented to in writing by such employer, person or entity. Consultant will indemnify the Company and hold it harmless from and against all claims, liabilities, damages, losses and expenses, including reasonable attorneys fees and costs of suit, arising out of or in connection with any violation or claimed violation of a third party's rights resulting in whole or in part from the Company's use of the work product of Consultant under this Agreement.

(d) Consultant recognizes that the Company has received and in the future will receive from third parties their confidential or proprietary information subject to a duty on the Company's part to maintain the confidentiality of such information and to use it only for certain limited purposes. Consultant agrees that Consultant owes the Company and such third parties, during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, a duty to hold all such confidential or proprietary information in the strictest confidence and not to disclose it to any person, firm or corporation or to use it except as necessary in carrying out the services for the Company consistent with the Company's agreement with such third party.

(e) Consultant shall not, in the course of performing the Services, incorporate into any Inventions and Works developed hereunder any invention, improvement, development, concept, discovery or other proprietary information that is owned by Consultant (or in which Consultant has an interest) and the right, title and interest to which have not been assigned to Company under this Agreement or in a separate written agreement between Consultant and Company (each, a "Consultant-Owned Item") without Company's prior written consent. If Company incorporates any Consultant-Owned Item into any Invention developed hereunder (whether with or without Company's consent), Consultant hereby grants to Company a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide license to (directly or indirectly) use, copy, reproduce, manufacture, make, have made, distribute, export, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, modify, improve, enhance, make derivative works of and otherwise commercially exploit such Consultant-Owned Item in the conduct of Company's business. Consultant shall not incorporate any invention, improvement, development, concept, discovery or other proprietary information owned by any third party into any Invention without the Company's prior written permission.

(f) The following terms have the following meanings as used in this Agreement:

(i) "Confidential Information" means any information related to the business or other affairs of the Company or its affiliates that: (1) becomes known to or is conceived, compiled, developed, or discovered by Consultant, whether solely or jointly with others, during the term of this Agreement or (2) is or has been received or otherwise becomes known to Consultant in connection with Consultant's service relationship with the Company. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Confidential Information includes information, both written and oral, relating to Inventions and Works, trade secrets and other proprietary information, technical data, products, services, finances, business plans, marketing plans, legal affairs, suppliers, clients, potential clients, prospects, opportunities, contracts or assets of the Company or its affiliates. Confidential Information also includes any information that has been made available to the Company by its clients or other third parties and which the Company is obligated to keep confidential. Confidential Information does not include information that is in the public domain prior to the date hereof or comes into the public domain after such date through no fault of Consultant, is independently developed by Consultant without reference to or use of any Confidential Information, or is received by Consultant without an obligation of confidentiality from an unrelated third party that is not under an obligation of confidentiality to the Company and that has a legal right to disclose such information.

(ii) "Inventions and Works" means any composition, work of authorship, computer program, product, device, technique, know-how, algorithm, method, design, process, procedure, improvement, discovery or invention, whether or not patentable or copyrightable and whether or not reduced to practice, that is (1) within the scope of the Company's business, research or investigations, or results from or is suggested by any work performed by Consultant for the Company, and (2) created, conceived, reduced to practice, developed, discovered, invented or made by Consultant during the Term, whether solely or jointly with others, and whether or not while employed by, or in a consulting relationship with, the Company.

(iii) "Materials" means any product, prototype, sample, model, document, diskette, tape, picture, drawing, design, recording, report, proposal, paper, note, writing or other tangible item which in whole or in part contains, embodies or manifests, whether in printed, handwritten, coded, magnetic or other form, any Confidential Information or Inventions and Works.

(iv) "Proprietary Right" means any patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, trade name, service mark or other protected intellectual property right in any Confidential Information, Inventions and Works, or Materials.

9. Non-solicitation; No Conflict; Non-disparagement.

(a) During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending 12 months after the termination of Consultant's service relationship with the Company (the "Restricted Period"), Consultant will not induce, or attempt to induce, any employee or consultant of the Company to leave such employment or relationship to engage in, be employed by, perform services for, participate in or otherwise be connected with, either directly or indirectly, Consultant or any enterprise with which Consultant is in any way associated.

(b) During the Restricted Period, Consultant will not divert or attempt to divert from the Company any business the Company enjoyed or solicited from its customers or business partners during the period of Consultant's services to the Company, nor will Consultant solicit or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, partner or other person or entity with whom the Company has, or is attempting to establish, a commercial relationship to cease or refrain from doing business with the Company or to alter its relationship with the Company in any way adverse to the Company.

(c) Consultant represents and warrants to the Company that Consultant's execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the performance of Consultant's other obligations and duties to the Company will not cause any breach, default or violation of any other employment, non-disclosure, confidentiality, consulting or other agreement to which Consultant is a party or by which Consultant may be bound.

(d) At all times after the date hereof, Consultant will not (i) make any false, misleading or disparaging representations or statements with regard to the Company or the products or services of the Company, or the management or shareholders of the Company, to any third party, or (ii) make any statement to any third party that may impair or otherwise adversely affect the goodwill or reputation of the Company.

10. Indemnification.

(a) Consultant's Indemnification. Consultant agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Company, its directors, officers, employees, and agents from and against any direct losses, claims, damages, liabilities, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal costs) arising out of or in connection with:

(i) any breach of this Agreement by Consultant;
(ii) any act or omission of Consultant in the performance of the Services;
(iii) any inaccuracy in the representations and warranties made by Consultant under this Agreement; or
(iv) any infringement or misappropriation of any patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, or other intellectual property right caused by work product or other materials created or furnished by Consultant under this Agreement.

Limitation on Consultant's Liability. The total liability of Consultant under this Section shall not exceed the aggregate fees actually paid to Consultant under this Agreement based on the $53/hour rate. This limitation shall not apply in cases involving willful misconduct, gross negligence, or intentional infringement of third-party intellectual property rights by Consultant.

(b) Company's Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify the Consultant only for the following actual, documented, and reasonably incurred losses and expenses (including attorneys' fees) directly resulting from:

(i) the Company's material breach of this Agreement;
(ii) a third-party intellectual property infringement claim arising from the Company's use of work product provided by the Consultant, where such use was not attributable to the Consultant's fault; or
(iii) a final and binding determination that the Consultant is not an independent contractor, where such determination results solely and directly from the actions or instructions of the Company.

Exclusion of Liability: Under no circumstances shall the Company be liable for any indirect, consequential, punitive, or special damages, or for loss of profits or goodwill suffered by the Consultant.

(c) General Provisions. If any claim subject to indemnification arises, each party shall promptly notify the other. The indemnifying party shall have the right to control the defense and settlement of such claim, provided that it does not impose any material obligation or liability on the indemnified party without its prior written consent.

11. Remedies. The parties agree that damages may be inadequate to compensate for the unique losses to be suffered in the event of a breach hereof (including violation of the non-solicitation or non-disclosure provisions), and that the damaged party will be entitled, in addition to any other remedy it may have under this Agreement or at law, to injunctive and other relief, including specific performance of the terms of this Agreement without the necessity of posting bond.

12. General.

(a) Notices. All notices given hereunder will be given in writing, will refer to this Agreement and will be personally delivered (effective upon delivery), sent by fax

(effective upon confirmed receipt), by overnight courier (effective the next business day after deposit with such courier service properly paid for and addressed) or by registered or certified mail (return receipt requested) to the address set forth below the parties' signatures at the end of this Agreement (effective upon receipt as indicated in such return receipt). Any party may from time to time change such address by giving the other party notice of such change in accordance with this Section 12(a).

(b) Assignment. Consultant may not (by contract, operation of law or otherwise) assign this Agreement or any right or interest in this Agreement without the prior written consent of Company. No such assignment by Consultant, with or without Company's consent, shall relieve Consultant from any of its obligations under this Agreement. Company may assign this Agreement without consent of Consultant, provided the assignee is bound by operation of law or by express agreement by the provisions hereof. This Agreement will be fully binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

(c) Amendments and Waivers. No amendment, waiver or discharge of any provision of this Agreement will be effective unless made in writing that specifically identifies this Agreement and the provision intended to be amended, waived or discharged and signed by Company and Consultant. The failure of Company to insist upon or enforce strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement or to exercise any of its rights or remedies under this Agreement will not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment to any extent of Company's rights to assert or rely upon such provision, right or remedy in that or any other instance; rather the same will be and remain in full force and effect.

(d) Applicable Law. This Agreement will be interpreted, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington, without reference to its choice of law rules.

(e) Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable under applicable law, then such provision shall be deemed reformed or omitted to the extent determined by such court (i.e., with the objective of preserving the intent of such provision to the extent permitted by applicable law). In any event, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain valid and enforceable.

(f) Entire Agreement. This Agreement (together with the attached Exhibit A which is incorporated herein by this reference) sets forth the entire agreement, and supersedes any and all prior and contemporaneous oral or written communications, understandings and agreements, with regard to the Services.
